

MAGNESITE

Dickinson County: Near Iron Mountain: Magnesite occurs as an accessory mineral with talc (q.v.) in drill cores from the contact of a serpentinized ultramafic rock and the Randville Dolomite (R. Weege, personal communication, 2007).

UPDATE FROM: Robinson, G.W., and Carlson, S.M., 2013, Mineralogy of Michigan Update: published online by A.E. Seaman Mineral Museum, Houghton, MI, 46p.